Colorado Springs, Colo. — Lincoln Avenue Communities (LAC), a mission-driven acquirer and developer of affordable housing, hosted a Family Resource Day event for InterQuest Ridge Apartments residents. InterQuest Ridge is LAC’s first ground-up development offering high-quality, affordable homes for families and individuals in Colorado Springs.

"Family Resource Days are essential to building community and provide our residents with vital resources," said LAC CEO Jeremy Bronfman. "We are proud to partner with leading service providers in Colorado Springs to support InterQuest Ridge residents."

Representatives from Care & Share, Pikes Peak Library District, League of Women Voters, El Paso Public Health, Tri Lakes Cares, Benefits in Action and the Colorado Springs Police and Fire Departments educated and engaged with the InterQuest Ridge community. The Family Resource Day provided residents the opportunity to learn about affordable healthcare, food security, voting rights and other community aid resources.

"LAC is committed to supporting our residents through Family Resource Days," said Rebecca Schultz, LAC vice president of asset management. "Community events like Family Resource Days play a key role in improving the overall health and wellness of our residents by helping them find and access local resources."

LAC regularly hosts Family Resource Days at its affordable housing properties across the country in conjunction with Fairview Housing Partners, a national nonprofit affordable housing organization.

About LAC: Lincoln Avenue Communities (LAC) is one of the nation’s fastest-growing developers, investors, and operators of affordable and workforce housing, providing high-quality, sustainable homes for lower- and moderate-income individuals, seniors, and families nationwide. A subsidiary of Lincoln Avenue Capital, LAC is a mission-driven organization with a presence in 28 states and a portfolio of 155+ properties comprising 27,000+ units.
