The event provided an opportunity for residents to connect with local service organizations.

Rochester, N.Y. — Lincoln Avenue Communities (“LAC”), a mission-driven acquirer and developer of affordable housing, hosted a Family Resource Day event for residents at Orchard Place Apartments, an affordable housing property that provides high-quality homes for families and individuals in the Rochester area.

“We believe affordable housing has the power to create stronger communities, and we’re committed to supporting the families, individuals and seniors that call our properties home,” said Lincoln Avenue Communities CEO Jeremy Bronfman. “Family Resource Days present a valuable opportunity for our residents to connect with key services and resources in their communities.”

Lincoln Avenue Communities distributed 300 backpacks and school supply kits to students at Orchard Place, and children were offered free haircuts from a local barber.
